- Use a variety of techniques to resolve the issues between those who bully, and those who have been bullied.

SEND

Social, Emotional and Mental Health is one of the categories of Special Educational Needs in the Code of Practice 2014. A pupil may be placed onto the SEN register under this code. We recognise that for a small number of children whose behaviour is beyond the whole school rewards and consequence system, a more personalised approach is required in order to support them. These areas will be identified in collaboration with other professionals when a child is in receipt of an Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP) and on the school’s Supporting Me to Learn (SML) document. All pupils requiring support with SEMH will have an individual SML plan agreed by the teacher, pupils and parents. Support, where appropriate, from Educational Psychologists and the Social, Emotional, Mental Health Team may be sought.

Education and Training

The school community will:

- Train all staff, including: teaching staff, support staff (e.g. administration staff, lunchtime support staff and site support staff) and pastoral staff, to identify all forms of bullying and take appropriate action, following the school’s policy and procedures (including recording and reporting incidents).
- Consider a range of opportunities and approaches for addressing bullying throughout the curriculum and other activities, such as: through displays, assemblies, peer support, the school council, etc.

- Provide systematic opportunities to develop pupils' social and emotional skills, including building their resilience and self-esteem.

10) Involvement of pupils

We will:

- Involve pupils in discussions and bullying to ensure that they understand the school's approach and are clear about the part they have to play to prevent bullying.
- Regularly canvas children and young people's views on the extent and nature of bullying.
- Ensure that all pupils know how to express worries and anxieties about bullying.
- Ensure that all pupils are aware of the range of sanctions which may be applied against those engaging in bullying.
- Involve pupils in anti-bullying campaigns in schools and embedded messages in the wider school curriculum.
- Publicise the details of internal support, as well as external helplines and websites.
- Offer support to pupils who have been bullied and to those who are bullying in order to address the problems they have.

- Ensure that parents work with the school to role model positive behaviour for pupils, both on and offline.

12) Monitoring and review: putting policy into practice

- The school will ensure that they regularly monitor and evaluate mechanisms to ensure that the policy is being consistently applied.
